Thanks so much, Nick! And thanks for joining us!

I'm always looking for input to help shape the program, so if any small businesses express need for anything in particular, let me know. I've also attached the Small Business Council brochure in case you want to share with your network.

My best,

For a great launch of a great initiative with great potential!

Please let me know if there is anything I can do to help expand and promote the program.
